

CHRISTOPHER DOYLE

YEAR OF CALL: 2020

Christopher has a commercial practice, primarily assisting clients on commercial disputes but also in corporate and professional regulatory matters. He has a particular interest in commercial contract disputes, insolvency and construction.

Christopher's expertise in these areas and his client-centric approach is underpinned by his time practising as a solicitor at a national Australian law firm where he worked in commercial litigation and dispute resolution.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) from the University of Queensland and a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) from the Queensland University of Technology.
