

KRISTI RIEDEL

YEAR OF CALL: 2015

Kristi has a special interest in all facets of insurance law (including professional negligence, financial lines and personal injury claims), employment law and land law in addition to defamation and general commercial matters. In particular, she has extensive experience acting for both plaintiffs and institutions in historical child abuse claims.

Prior to being called to the Bar, Kristi was a senior associate at a national firm where she advised and acted for local and international insurers. She has appeared led and unled in state and federal courts, tribunals and coronial inquests. Kristi is known for being diligent, approachable and working well with her instructors and their clients.
