

MATTHEW HICKEY

YEAR OF CALL: 2010

Matthew has considerable trial and appellate experience, especially in high-profile, commercially and reputationally-sensitive matters, across a broad range of practice areas.

He was named among the “Best Lawyers in Australia” by the Australian Financial Review in 2019 and in 2020 (in three categories: commercial law, litigation, and construction & infrastructure law). Doyle’s Guide to the Australian Legal Profession recognises him as one of Queensland’s leading counsel, in: commercial litigation & dispute resolution (2018 & 2019); insolvency & restructuring (2018 & 2019); and building & construction (2016 to 2019).

Matthew has appeared in all State and Federal Courts (including success on appeal to the High Court of Australia), in Commissions of Inquiry and inquests, and in large-scale commercial arbitration. He regularly appears without a leader and has experience leading junior counsel.

He has been a board member and director of companies, charitable associations, community groups, and university advisory bodies, and worked in a top-tier law firm before coming to the bar.

Previously, Matthew was a professional operatic tenor. He performed in operas, oratorios and concerts, and toured the world with The Ten Tenors. Under his leadership, as Executive Producer and Artistic Director from 1998 to 2010, The Ten Tenors achieved gold and platinum records in Australia and abroad (most of which he co-produced). Highlights included recording at Abbey Road and Sir George Martin’s Air Studios, working with Oscar-winning composer John Barry, and performing at the Melbourne Cricket Ground for the AFL Grand Final.

In 2001, Matthew was awarded the Commonwealth Centenary Medal.
