

THE HON. ANDREW GREENWOOD

The Honourable Andrew Greenwood is a former Judge of the Federal Court of Australia who now accepts appointments as arbitrator and legal expert. He is a Fellow of The Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration and Fellow of the Resolution Institute of Australia.

He was appointed to The Federal Court of Australia on the 4th of August 2005 and retired from The Court at the end of July 2022. He was also President of the Copyright Tribunal of Australia, a Presidential Member of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal and Deputy President of The Australian Competition Tribunal. He is an adjunct professor in the University of Queensland School of Law. Over 17 years, his Honour delivered over 900 judgements in both the original and appellate jurisdictions of the Court in all of the Courts national practice areas.

As an indication of his diversity of interests, the Honourable Andrew Greenwood was requested by professor Anthony Zee, the Head of The Institute of Theoretical Physics at UCLA, to review Professor Zee's draft manuscript on quantum field theory and his contribution is recognised in the published edition of the work.
